Eloquent though they were, the stories men and women told me about courtship, love, and marriage do not speak for themselves. Differences in how the two groups of women compared here women born in the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s, and women born in the 1950s and 1960s depict their intimate lives may be shaped by the fact that they are at different stages in their lives and marriages: given
