A Girl's Best Friend by Elizabeth Young - Goodreads
The book is titled "A Girl's Best Friend," because of Isabel's relationship with her dog Henry. There's this small part in the beginning that describes a poster Isabel's friend made for her that lists why a dog is better than a man. And then it was rarely if ever brought up again.

Fortunately, A Girl's Best Friend isn't abysmal. It is a basic, but unremarkable, addition to the "chick lit" genre. Still, it might have been more memorable had Young not overloaded the reader with characters and weakly tried to tie three stories into one. Given these flaws, one should pass on this "dog."
