Beautifully written and the two styles that of Peter Straub's and Mr King's blend very well, but the story is not very strong and the efforts to link it with the Dark Tower series feel strained. Will be enjoyed by Stephen King's fans BECAUSE it is co-written by him and, therefore, the storytelling is brilliant.

If you've listened to books by Stephen King and Peter Straub before, how does this one compare? I listened to The Talisman and I thought Black House was a little better, but not by much. Only because with the main character being an adult rather than a child, I think King/Straub could utilize mature themes.
