Calum Colvin - Burnsiana

BURNSIANA | Burnsiana is an exhibition and book born from an appreciation of the poetry, life and times of Scotland's favourite son, Robert Burns. The works are a mixture of the mundane and the surreal, assemblages of everyday objects, which become a three-dimensional canvas for various painted scenarios. The end result is a dynamic body of work, which is rendered photographically and

Colvin's multi-referential artworks are concerned with the very process of looking, perceiving and interpreting. The potential meaning of any individual piece is intrinsically linked to the viewer's personal deconstruction of the image. Utilising the unique fixed-point perspective of the camera, Colvin creates and records manipulated and constructed images in order to create elaborate
