Dragon Sea: A True Tale of Treasure, Archeology, and Greed ...

I decided to read "Dragon Sea" to learn more about my gift. The book was only interesting to me because I owned a piece of the "treasure." The writing itself, however, is not very good. Pope uses technical phrases which the average reader would not understand and the story is slow at parts.

Scuba Diver Info - Book Review: Dragon Sea

Dragon Sea, however, is an exceedingly serious and very well written book describing the recovery of a large amount of 15th century Vietnamese porcelain and pottery from a wreck off Vietnam in the South China Sea. The dive site is deep, 220 feet, the conditions challenging, the origins of the wreck unknown, and the cargo of great archeological interest. Learning about such an involved recovery
