The part I enjoyed most about Strange but True by John Searles was that it was more mysterious than perceived from reading the caption at the back of the book. There were various places in the book that left you hanging and made you want to read on; that there's one more thing you'll want to see, far more disturbing than anything so far, behind the bathroom door. But as Melissa said to Strange but True - John Searles - Paperback - harpercollins.ca
