J.E.T: My agent submitted The Girl from Felony Bay to a number of excellent Middle Grade publishers, and several wanted to buy the book. In the end, he set up conference calls so that I could speak with the bidding editors, and after speaking with the people at Walden Pond Press and HarperCollins and hearing their excitement about The Girl from Felony Bay , I knew who I wanted to work with.

The Girl From Felony Bay by J.E. Thompson is a great mystery mixed with a little (but not too much) history. Two unlikely girls become friends: one used to be wealthy white girl and one wealthy African-American girl whose ancestors used to be slaves for the white girl's family. Now, the white girl, Abby, is poor and the African-American girl, Bea, is living in Abby's old house and has her room
