Speculiction...: Review of Tik-tok by John Sladek

Oscillating between perspectives, Tik-tok's entrepreneurial endeavors are interspersed with recollections of his past. A long string of bizarre owners and strange escapades preceding the Studebakers, Sladek's razor sharp wit eviscerates the upper middle class and their bizarre fetishes and projects.

Sladek revisited robots from a darker point of view in the BSFA Award winning novel Tik-Tok, featuring a sociopathic robot who lacks any moral "asimov circuits", and Bugs, a wide-ranging satire in which a hapless technical writer (a job Sladek held for many years) helps to create a robot who quickly goes insane.
