Two for the Money \(Hard Case Crime #5\) by Max Allan Collins

Two for the Money consists of two Max Allan Collins novels featuring Nolan, an aging tough guy who's looking to get out of the game. The first, Bait Money, is a fantastic crime novel that shows Collins at the top of his game. The second, Blood Money, didn't work quite as well for me. Too many of the events felt too coincidental, as if they were happening just to move the plot forward. Despite Two for the Money book by Max Allan Collins - Thriftbooks

"Two For The Money" is really two books Max Allan Collins wrote previously titled "Bait Money" and the sequel "Blood Money". Having them under one cover is great. The art work on the cover is old-school and so is the action. Characters real enough to be able to pick out of a line-up, and lots of bullets, sex, and betrayal. Hard-boiled mystery and action at it's best.

Two for the Money is actually a compilation of two novels: Bait Money (Collins's first published novel) and Blood Money, though the two really form one larger story. In Bait Money, Nolan tries to make peace with Charlie, a crime boss who's been after Nolan for years since Nolan killed Charlie's brother and stole some money from him. Charlie, a cog in a bigger crime machine known as the Family
